"I Saw
Gasoline History
Made" . . . Jim Bryan

JIM BRYAN, winner of the 1958 Indianapolis "500" and performance steward of the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run, saw gasoline history in the making.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Apr. 9—Just four hours ago, 47 men and women, drivers in the 1959 Mobilgas Economy Run, wearily crossed the finish line in front of the Muehlebach Hotel. They were dog-tired after 4½ days and 1,898 miles of some of the toughest driving I've ever seen.

Powered by Mobilgas Special, stock cars representing every U.S. make started from Los Angeles' Civic Center at dawn on April 5. First across the blistering desert, then up, up to 11,988 feet and over the jagged spine of the Rockies, then over the prairies. And by the end of the Run they had bucked 342 miles of traffic in 147 towns and cities. Deserts, mountains, prairies and cities—running at maximum legal speeds all the time!

One of the drivers summed it up for me: "Toughest, most demanding grind I've ever been through. But when I needed it, Mobilgas Special came through with plenty of smooth, knock-free power. And it came through with plenty of economy, too!"
